WHO ARE WE?

Halifax Humane Society Inc., a private non-profit corporation, serving Volusia County since 1937, accepts unwanted and lost animals 365 days per year. We are an open-admission shelter which means no animal is ever turned away, regardless of age, illness, or injury.

Our purpose is to:

- Provide for the needs of lost, forsaken, and abandoned animals
- Return animals to their owners or place them in good homes
- Create awareness of the overpopulation problem and its solutions
- Provide affordable Spay/Neuter opportunities to the public
- Provide information to the public about humane and responsible treatment of animals
- Educate the public on the ethics of animal protection, thereby fostering their support

HOW DO I START?

On the right side of the screen click on VOLUNTEER and follow the steps to complete an online application. Once your application is processed, we will contact you.

SIGN UP

All volunteers are required to take HHS 101, a basic orientation of Halifax Humane Society. After orientation, the classes you take depend on how you want to spend your volunteer time with us.

VOLUNTEER

We expect our volunteers to:

- Have fun and be cheerful
- Contribute in a responsible manner
- Share and learn
- Be respectful to all
- Care for the animals in a loving way
